IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ORIGINAL PRINT EXHIBITION AND SALE AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--An exhibition and sale of original prints by classic and contemporary artists will be held March 20 at the University of San Diego.

The exhibition will be held at the USD College for Men Library from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The collection is being presented by Ferdinand Roten Galleries of Baltimore, Md.

Prices for the prints range from $5 to $1,000, said Dr. Lee F. Gerlach, chairman of the USD College for Men department of English. However, the average price is under $100.

The exhibition includes original etchings, lithographs and woodcuts by Picasso, Chagall, Miro, Goya, Renior, Baskin and Kollwitz. A collection of outstanding Western and Oriental manuscript pages from works of the 13th to 20th centuries will also be on display, said Dr. Gerlach.

A representative of the Roten Galleries will be available during the exhibition and sale to answer questions about graphic arts and printmaking, Dr. Gerlach said.

The Roten Galleries have pioneered in bringing original art to colleges throughout the nation, Dr. Gerlach said. They have been holding exhibitions and sales for over 36 years, he added.
